FIRST RUMBLE OF FIGHT OVER REP. PLATFORM

Agrarian Midwest Starts
Drive For McNary-
Haugen Plank
DEMAND PLEDGE OF FARM RELIEF
Plank Must Contain Fee,
However, And Not As Hooverites Desire

Kansas City, June 7.—The first rumble of a major battle over the Republican platform for the 1928 campaign was heard here today as spokesmen for the Agrarian Midwest launched a drive for a McNary-Haugen farm relief plank.
"Outriders of the farm relief army which will assemble here from every agricultural state, were out spoken in demanding a plank pledging the Republican party to the enactment of farm relief legislation, containing the equalization fee feature which President Coolidge vetoed in uncertain terms. The drive, popular though it may be in the midwest, appears doomed to defeat.

Aside from this farm relief fight, there appeared no other clouds on the platform horizon. Party leaders, Delegates and even the farm representatives were agreed that the platform should contain laudatory reference to Coolidge policies and pledges to continue them through another four years. All were in accord upon other subjects, with particular stress laid upon the Republican brands of national prosperity and governmental economy.

The farm relief plank however developed dissension among party leaders and delegates. Both sides threatened to carry their fight to the floor of the convention, if defeated in the committee on resolutions, which drafts the platform. In the end, it appeared, the convention itself will decide whether the Republican platform shall call for another McNary-Haugen bill or support the president by pledging the party merely to "adequate farm relief legislation."

Upon such an issue, there seemed little doubt but that the farmers would go down to defeat. The followers of Herbert Hoover, by far the largest single group in the convention, and the followers of President Coolidge, by no means a small group, were certain to oppose the plank demanded by the farm leaders. Together these two groups dominate the convention.

Alumni To Elect New Officers at Meeting Friday

The business meeting of the Salem High School Alumni association will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in Room 203 of the High school.

Reports of officers will be heard, and election of officers for the coming year held.

Tickets for the banquet and reunion which will be held at the Memorial building at 6 p. m. must be obtained before 3 p. m. Friday.

CHIEF MALLOY GIVEN HONOR

Marion, June 7.—John J. Curtis, Indiana, today was elected chief of the Ohio Fire Chiefs' association at the closing session here today.
Other officers chosen are: John J.
Grogg, Tiffin, first vice president;
Vincent Malloy, Salem, second vice president, and Phillip J. Hartly, Youngstown, secretary-treasurer.

PORTERS ISSUE STRIKE ORDER

Chicago, June 7.—Six thousand or more Porters employed by the Pullman company throughout the country will go out on strike tomorrow at 1 p. m. unless the federal mediation board intervenes, officials of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters announced here this afternoon.

The announcement was made by H. P. Webster, divisional organizer.
His statement was made in reply to one issued by E. F. Curran, president of the Pullman company, that if the strike were called the places of the porters would be filled with competent men.

Men are seeking a wage rate of $150 per month and a 240-hour monthly working basis.

SEARCH TOLEDO FOR ROBBERS OF PAY CASH

Toledo, June 7.—Search for the six robbers who yesterday held up the business offices of the Detroit News and escaped with a part of the $65,000 weekly payroll after a street fight in which two police and one employee of the newspaper was shot, centered here today.

"Miss Lindy's" Plane Poised For Flight

After three unsuccessful attempts to get away today, the giant tri-motored Fokker, Friendship, with a woman and two men as its occupants, is ready for another trial before sunset. The plane is bound for England from Newfoundland. Amelia Earhart, Boston, called "Miss Lindy"; Wilmer Stultz, pilot (lower right) and Lou Gordon, mechanic (inset upper right), are the crew.

Anti-Hoover Machine Taking Form; Leaders Address Daily Meetings

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES

Kansas City, June 7.—Thoroughly aroused and frightened at last the anti-Hoover allies were engaged today in a belated effort to whip together some kind of an organization capable of stopping the nomination of the secretary of commerce here next week.
Lowden men, Watson men, Curtis Lowden men, Daves men, Watson men, Curtis men everybody, in fact, who regards the nomination of Hoover with sorrow and foreboding, are participating in the effort.

Two meetings of this sort were held last night. More will be held today and tomorrow, and probably every day and every night between now and balloting time.

Up to today the allies have been such in name and purpose only. All of them have wanted to see the cabinet candidate stopped, but while there has been unity of thought and objective there has been utterly lacking any unity of effort and command.

The situation has been not unlike that prevailing on the western front during the World war when the various allies cheered for each other but lacked the unity of command and effort essential to victory.

Ultimately, the World war allies found Foch. Perhaps the hard-pressed allies in Kansas City may yet find a Foch, but his identity as yet remains hidden.

Meanwhile, the smooth-running Hoover machine has been checking with a regularity and efficiency that has actually and painfully astonished the remnants of the "old guard" faction in the Republican party, that have heretofore been somewhat contemptuous of Hoover's political abilities.

The Hoover machine has clicked
so efficiently, in fact, that Hoover came out of the delegate contests before the Republican national committee with virtually a clean sweep.

These contests were ended today.
Of the 71 cases actually heard and voted upon by the committee, Hoover won 65. The Hoover managers could have won 67, but they deliberately voted against their own delegates in two Louisiana districts in order to give seats to and placate two influential negro politicians, one of whom is for Lowden and the other for Curtis.

The other four that the Hoover people didn't win were territorial delegates whose affiliations are uncertain. They are technically described as uninstructed. Thus, for all practical purposes, the delegate contests resulted in virtually a complete victory, and, incidentally, the addition of 65 or 69 votes to the already imposing Hoover total.

Vote On Committee
At all times, the Hoover managers, some of whom blandly obtained proxies and voted as members of the committee, demonstrated their power.

That is the condition of affairs that at last has thoroughly aroused and scared the unorganized allies into an effort to get some cohesion and unity into their efforts. They still have a week before the balloting begins. Much can sometimes be accomplished in a week but the machine which they are opposing took two months to put together.

The two meetings held last night resounded with criticism of the cabinet candidate and demands for the nomination of some one whose

NOTED PHYSICIAN DEAD OF SHOCK

Dr. Herbert Steuer Takes Hold of Charged Wire On X-ray Machine

Cleveland, June 7.—Dr. Herbert Steuer, 35, widely known Cleveland physician, died early today at Mt.
Sinai hospital here, after a score of doctors and several firemen battled four hours to save his life.

Dr. Steuer was struck down in his office last night when he accidentally touched a heavily charged wire on his X-ray machine while photographing the injured knee of a patient, it was said. A blue flash shot from the machine and Dr. Steuer fell to the floor, his hands clutching the wire. Witnesses said, "The X-ray apparatus toppled over on him."

Physicians worked over the victim with resuscitating machines pumping oxygen into his lungs. After oxygen from ten tanks failed to revive him, his colleague attending doctors appealed to firemen of the rescue squad.

The firefighters stripped to their waists worked in relays supplying artificial respiration with their hands to the victim.

At 1 a. m. attending physicians physicians agreed that Dr. Steuer was dead and further effort to revive him hopeless.

Dr. Steuer had been captain in the medical corps, Ohio National Guard for several years, assigned to the 145th infantry, Cleveland.

Toledo Aviator To Try Japan Flight

Toledo, June 7.—The announcement that a Toledo aviator is planning a flight non-stop to Japan, is causing interest to be aroused here today.

Russell A. Hodler, the pilot planning the flight, will hop from Seattle in a plane he has designed some time early in the fall according to his present plans.

To Sell Ice Cream by Weight

Andalusia Co. Plans New Method: First In Country

Announcement was made last night by E. H. Campbell, general manager of the Andalusia Dairy Co. at a meeting of the Andalusia dealers of Salem and vicinity, that ice cream, which previously has been sold by measures—pint, quart and gallon—will now be sold according to weight, in one, and one-half pound packages, as well as by the former method.

The local company is the first in the country to adopt the new method of offering ice cream to the public and its dealers.

It is the first time in the history of the business in America that such a plan has been finally adopted.

Representatives of large companies from Chicago, New York, Buffalo, Youngstown and Cleveland were present at last night's meeting, interested in the pioneer movement which may soon be adopted throughout the ice cream industry.

According to one of the speakers, "The eyes of the ice cream world are focused on Salem, as the proving-ground of this pioneer movement."

The movement is in line with the adoption of the weight method of distribution of other products. It is of particular interest to the public, as it means a standardization of a food product which insures correct and unvarying value to the buyer.

After the ingredients of which ice cream is made, even the milk and cream, are purchased by weight, Mr. Campbell states, and that the new plan of his company is only logical.

The new plan will take effect in the near future, he said today.

RAYMOND WILL GIVE ADDRESS

Noted Psychologist Will Appear Two Nights At High School

Frank Jewell Raymond, noted business psychologist of East Orange, N. J., will address the employees of the Mullins Manufacturing company at the High school auditorium at 8 p. m., Monday and Tuesday.

Raymond recently spoke to the Foremen's club of the company on the subject, "The Stairway of Achievement" and was secured to address the employees on his most noted topic, "Making Good in Business of Life."

Raymond is attached to the Rockefeller Foundation staff and has been touring through the country delivering his forceful messages. He is known as "the backbone builder of business" and "the man with the punch."

Several additional features have been placed on the program by the committee of the club. Among them will be the "Red Arrow" quartet, through the courtesy of the Pennsylvania railroad, a comedy song and dance act with Ted Corcoran and Jean Gripp, and Billy Flank in an acrobatic dance specialty. Arnold P. Lutes will sing several vocal roles. Music will be furnished by Finley's Melody band.

The entertainment is open to the public.

Smith May File

Columbus, June 7.—Harry C.
Smith, negro publisher of Cleveland, has applied to Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown for papers to file for both short and long term as U.
S. senator and also for governor if he was elected today. Smith is a Republican.

COLLECT $800,000 IN DEMPSEY FIGHT TAXES

Washington, June 7.—Jack Dempsey's popularity with the American public was set down in cold dollars and cents at the United States treasury today.

From the big ring battles in which Dempsey has participated since he slugged his way to the championship of the world against Jess Willard in Toledo, Uncle Sam has collected nearly $800,000 in amusement taxes alone.

Considering the total paid by all who profited by these fights the taxes run into the millions.

DEMOCRATS ARE SITTING TIGHT, EYES ON RIVALS

Watching Big Show Next Week In Kansas City Of Republicans

FEW CONTESTS ON COMMITTEE LIST

Fight On Smith Similar To That On Hoover; Dry Plank Issue

Washington, June 7.—The Democrats are sitting tight while the Republicans stage their show at Kansas City.

By the time the Democrats gather at Houston June 26, the Republican nominee will have been selected.

With but a few contests slated,
the Democratic national committee will not have to meet far in advance of the convention as the Republican committee did.

So far only two contest notices have been filed, with a probability, however, that a few others will come along later. There are contests in the Canal zone delegation and in Philadelphia, where charges have been made of an alleged combination of Democratic and Vire Republican forces. This charge was first laid before the senate presidential funds committee.

Clem L. Shaver, chairman of the Democratic national committee, now at his home in Fairmount, W. Va., plans to leave tomorrow for Houston to confer with Jesse H. Jones and convention officers. He is not expected to issue the call for the committee meeting before next week.

Like Fight Against Hoover

In nomination race, the Democrats are faced by a situation somewhat analogous to that of the Republicans. Whereas in Kansas City it is Herbert Hoover against the field, in Houston it is Gov. Al Smith against a loosely-knit combination of other candidates. Smith is far out in front in pledged and instructed delegates, so far, in fact, that his supporters claim he has the nomination sewed up already.

Rival candidates, and particularly Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, dispute this vigorously, and contend they will be able to stop Smith.

Among southern delegates unfavorable to Smith there is a dis-cernible movement afoot to rally behind Rep. Cordell Hull of Tennessee. It has gained some strength because of Reed's inability to defeat Smith in any presidential primary in which they have met. Senator

COP'S CAR HELD LIQUOR, CHARGE

Columbus Policeman and 2 Women Companions Jailed by U. S. Men

Columbus, O., June 7.—Motorcycle Patrolman Arthur J. Lloyd, 36, and two women were being held in Franklin county jail here today following their arrest by federal dry agents last night. The trio was arrested when federal officers stopped the car of Patrolman Lloyd it is alleged, and found 24 half pints of liquor in the auto.

Lloyd will be arraigned before Federal Commissioner Horn here this afternoon on charges of conspiracy to violate the prohibition law.

What action will be taken against the two women is not known. It is thought, however, that they will be dismissed as Lloyd said that the women were just taking a ride with him and that they were not aware that he was transporting liquor.

Lloyd has a wife and six children.

Slayer Indicted

Marion, O., June 7.—A Marion county grand jury today indicted Everett Koon, 30, for first degree murder with intent to rob in the death of Henry Foos, aged farmer who was fatally beaten at this home near here a week ago.

MABEL BOLL, "MISS LINDY" FORCED BACK

Columbia Leaves On First Leg of Flight To Rome, But Returns; Friendship Is Unable to Leave After 3 Starts

A sensational airplane race across the Atlantic ocean between two women whose lives are bound up in the ambition
"to be the first," was postponed today.

Miss Mabel Boll, of Rochester, N. Y., accompanied by a pilot and a navigator, hopped off at Roosevelt Field, Long Island, N. Y., at 7 a. m., for Old Orchard, Maine, on the first leg of a long air journey to Rome. They returned shortly after noon due to the weather.

MABEL BOLL

attempts were made this morning to start and the flight had to be postponed.

While Miss Earhart and her flying companions, Pilot Wilmer Stultz and Mechanic Louis Gordon, had been warned by the backers of the flight not to engage in a race with the Columbia, there was every possibility that circumstances might force the planes into the first air contest of speed and endurance over the old Atlantic man has ever known.

Advices from Trepassy Bay quoted Miss Earhart as saying she would be able to get away before sunset.

Curtiss Field, N. Y., June 7.—The trans-Atlantic monoplane, Columbia, in which Mabel Boll, "Queen of Diamonds," and two male companions, started out early today on the first leg of a proposed flight to Europe, returned to the field here shortly after noon.

It was stated that unfavorable weather along the route to Old Orchard, Me., the first stop on the proposed flight, had caused the return.

The chief danger arose from the thick fog which the Columbia encountered all along the way.

"We were in the air something like five hours and most of the time you could hardly see your hand before your face," said Argles.

"This was an entirely unexpected condition. It was bright and clear when we set out this morning and we did not anticipate thick weather.
I had talked with the weather bureau at 1 o'clock this morning and was told that all available information indicated good flying conditions."

Shortly after the landing Miss Boll and her two flying companions left for New York City.

The third woman trans-Atlantic aspirant, Fraulien Thea Rasche of Berlin, planned to make a test flight
in her new plane at Curtiss Field, Long Island, this afternoon. She expects to hop off for Germany within a few days, thus giving rise to the possibility of a melodramatic three cornered air race over the Atlantic with two American girls pitted against the pretty young German aviatrix.

Hops Off at 6:15 a. m.

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., June 7.—
The Columbia, sturdy monoplane which carried Clarence Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine from here to Germany, hopped off from here at 6:15 a. m., today for Old Orchard, Me., on the first leg of its second flight across the North Atlantic.

The plane carried Miss Mabel Boll, Oliver Le Boutillier, of Montclair, N. J., her pilot and Captain

Princess Sues For Decree From Carol

Berlin, June 7.—Princess Helen, mother of little King Michael, of Rumania, has filed suit for divorce against former Crown Prince Carol, according to a report from Vienna
today.

Carol has been living in Paris and Belgium since deserting Helen for Mrs. Magda, Helen Lupescu, a beautiful red-haired Rumanian woman. The divorce action is understood to have been filed in Bucharest.

shoe company, recently incorporated, will hold its formal opening at 9
a. m. Friday.

Charles Haldi, senior partner in the company, has been connected with the shoe business in Salem for the past 22 years. He was with the Speidel Shoe store for 19 years.
Richard Hutchinson, junior partner, has been in the business for approximately nine years. Both have established reputations in the shoe business and are well known.

The new store has been completely equipped and refurbished with mens', womens' and childrens' shoes.
A hosiery department for ladies and children also has been installed.

ACCOMSTOMED TO DANGER

It is reported that Hugo Junkers, the builder of the Bremen was greatly relieved when he arrived in Chicago, recently, after a trip on the Twentieth Century Limited from New York City. "I was afraid of that long railroad journey," he is quoted as having remarked. "I don't know how safe trains are, and I doubted if I could sleep."

We have in print an intimation that he may have considered it good business to hold out that he considered air travel safer than rail, but we are glad to absolve him from that, believing him to be far too sharp to cause the public to draw a comparison of the relative safety of the two methods of travel, especially at a time so close upon the heels of the announcement that all of the millions of passengers carried by the railroads of the United States last year only 10 met death in railroad accidents.

We rather incline to the view that Herr Junkers is like the general run of humanity in that he has grown so much accustomed to his product and its use that his feeling of safety in its operation has appreciated while there has been a corresponding depreciation of his esteem for the safety of other methods of travel.

Back in the early days of the great popularity of the bicycle, it was related that many structural steel and iron workers hesitated about attempting its use for fear of getting a fall and breaking their bones, and we once knew a teamster whose occupation was the hauling of nitroglycerin who wouldn't ride in an elevator for fear the blasted thing would drop and kill him.

In a word, man is prone to lose all fear of that at which he is constantly employed and exaggerate the danger of that which he is unacquainted, and this is very probably the reason why Herr Junkers is prone to consider aeroplane travel safe and have doubts about the safety of railroad travel.

THE "YES" MAN

Because you want to be popular you have become one of the "yes" men.

And if you have followed this course through life, perhaps you are beginning to realize that your opinion is no longer sought on important matters.

You don't like to think, so you agree with those you wish to impress or you follow the majority, rather than make the extra effort it requires to form a practical, sound opinion of your own.

Can you bring to mind a single man who has been a success who has not had opinions of his own and was not afraid to express them?

When circumstances demand your ideas, be ready with them.

If you have not advanced as you should it may be that your employer feels that you are too prone to agree with him.

The right kind of employer wants a man who has ideas that are helpful.

He wants a man who will do as directed, of course.

But also he wants a man who has an honest opinion and who will give it to him when asked in the interests of business.

The "yes" man is of no special help to him when he needs advice.

What Others Say

CROSSING ELIMINATION

Recent statements made to the Interstate Commerce commission that grade crossings are on the increase in this country and that their elimination, as a matter of safety for the public, is of far greater importance than the installation of automatic train-control devices on tracks and engines, give particular interest to some suggestions made by President Davis of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, on this subject. His road, he says, has spent $29,000,000 since 1910 in getting rid of crossings in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York, and yet only 36 per cent. of those on its lines have been abolished. "There are," he adds, "233,000 railroad crossings in this country. To separate all of them, either by over or under passageways, would require generations of time to accomplish and involve an expenditure of something like $19,000,000,000."

In view of the impossibility of such a reform within anything like a reasonable time, Mr. Davis makes a suggestion of real practical value, which has probably occurred to other persons interested in the question. This is that by the construction of highways paralleling the railroads a number of crossings can be consolidated into one, and that this can then be elevated or depressed, according to the location. No one who rides through sparsely-settled country districts and notes the frequency of grade crossings on highways with little traffic will be disposed to doubt the feasibility of this idea. A large proportion of grade crossings are quite unnecessary and can be eliminated without prohibitive cost by a hearty spirit of co-operation between the railroads and townships and state officials. This is constantly being done, but the process would be hastened by the adoption of a more aggressive policy looking to this end.

As for his own road, President Davis says that it "will gladly co-operate with any community along its lines in the construction of marginal highways to lessen the number of grade crossings, injuries and deaths and save money for the taxpayers, of which it is a large one."

Perhaps our local railroads may find many places where such marginal highways could be constructed, to the great benefit of all the interests concerned.—Philadelphia Record.

JUSTICE DELAYED

Some months ago, death sentence was passed in Washington upon a man who had brutally assaulted a woman in the shadows of the capitol grounds. By the well-known methods of legal squirming, however, execution of that sentence has so far been prevented, and the belief that it will ever be executed has been seriously weakened.

And now Washington is startled by another fiendish assault, perpetrated by a man who forced his way into the house of a young married couple when the husband was absent, compelled the terrified young wife to yield at the point of a revolver, and then made her write a note exonerating him from blame, compelled her to cook a meal for him, and finally sneaked out into the adjacent woods and escaped.

If the former of these two fiends had been promptly put to death, as sentenced, the chances are that the second crime would not have been committed. These two Washington cases should add momentum to the growing movement for prompt and adequate penalties, inflicted without delay, upon the fiendish perpetrators of all such crimes. The one fundamental aim of the criminal law is the protection of society against crime, and society is not getting the protection for which it is paying.—Columbus Dispatch.

UNSOUNDED KIDNEYS
NEED SPECIAL CAREBy Royal S. Copeland, M. D.
United States Senator from New York
former Commissioner of Health, New York City

Through the kidneys pass nearly one-half of all the waste products of the body. Since all body wastes, and especially such as go through the kidneys, are poisons, you can see how necessary it is that there shall be no interruption to their passage.

DR. COPELAND

In Bright's disease the function of the kidneys is disturbed, and no longer can they eliminate the nitrogenous products, known to the doctors as urea, uric acid and ammonia. If the disease cannot be relieved speedily, there must be an immediate reduction in the intake of foods rich in nitrogen.

At the same time, the life of the patient must be so regulated that there will be the least possible demand for protein food. This means placing a limitation upon the amount of physical exertion.

I have explained to you that food is taken for two purposes—to supply energy and to keep the tissues in repair. The latter function is performed by the protein. Of the proteins, the best examples are lean meat and the whites of eggs.

In the severe and acute forms of Bright's disease, milk may be the only food safe to give. Even this may be too rich in protein. Water should be administered freely. To this may be added sugar, cereals, gruel, and possibly, bread. Butter, milk and oatmeal may be useful.

If milk is well borne, it will supply all the nourishment needed. As the case progresses, vegetables may be added, and in due time, perhaps, a limited amount of meat.

The chronic form of Bright's disease is a difficult condition to treat. It lasts for years and the diet must be regulated carefully all this time.

There is a choice in the method of cooking the meat. Since the juices seem to contain the harmful elements, broiled and roasted meat, and meat soups are to be avoided. Boiled meat, especially if twice boiled, is far safer, even if less palatable.

Ham contains much less protein than beef, but, of course, it has enough to be avoided. Oysters are low in protein content, as also are salmon, and some of the other fish, except cod and shad, and may be taken in moderation.

Fruits and green vegetables the cereals and other carbohydrates—including sugar and the starches—milk, cream, sweet cider, unfermented fruit juices, vichy, tea and coffee in moderation, the yolk of the egg, potatoes—all these are safe to give.

The bowels must be kept open and the skin must be active. Frequent baths, gentle exercise, warm climate and mental poise are helpful.

With proper care and diet, the natural expectation of life may be looked forward to if the treatment is begun early. A long and useful life may be counted on if the right care is exercised.

Please bear in mind that we have been discussing diet in the treatment of actual disease of the kidneys. Do not form the opinion that I look upon meat eating as a hazardous procedure for healthy persons. I do not so regard it.

It used to be thought that excessive meat eating is responsible for Bright's disease. That is believed no longer. Infection from pus centers or from fever are the chief factors contributed to this ailment.

For persons in good health, meat and other proteins are very essential to the bodily welfare. Copyright, 1928, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Modern Instruments
Aid to Safe Flying
Long Flights Show

Cleveland, June 7.—Assistant Secretary of War F. T. Davison recently in an address before the Army and Navy Club No. 54 here stressed the different instruments being perfected to make flying as safe as any other kind of transportation. He also told of the rapid strides made by American aviators.

"The aviators greatest enemy is

TENDER, ACHING SWOLLEN FEET

In Just Five Minutes Those Sore, Tender, Aching Feet Get Amazing Relief

You probably feel like a lot of other people that about all you can do is dust some powder in your shoes or give your feet a special foot bath and let it go at that, but don't be foolish. Make up your mind today that you are going to give your feet a real chance to get well.

Go to Leach Drug Co., Flooding Drug Store, Bolger & French or any other good druggist today and get an original bottle of Moene's Emerald Oil.

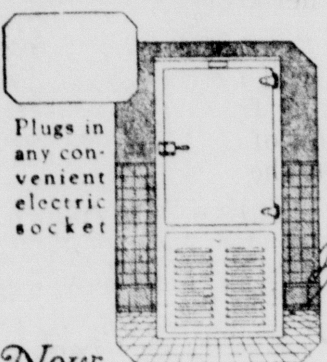

The very first application will give you relief and a few short treatments will thoroughly convince you that by sticking faithfully to it for a short while your foot troubles will be a thing of the past.

Don't expect a single bottle to do it all at once but one bottle we know will show you beyond all question that you have at last discovered the way to solid foot comfort.

Remember that Moene's Emerald Oil is a clean, powerful, penetrating Antiseptic Oil that does not stain or leave a greasy residue and that it must give complete satisfaction or your money cheerfully refunded. Adv.

fog." Davison explained, "and instruments will be perfected in the near future to defeat it."

"The radio beacon has been developed to keep aviators on a straight line over long distances regardless of wind drifts or other atmospheric conditions. The Hawaiian flight demonstrated the practicability of this invention."

"The British have solved the problem of fixing the exact position of the field by electric cable strung around it at certain intervals. The only problem remaining is that of ascertaining exact altitude. Inventors are working on a capacity altimeter which will soon solve that."

Davison declared that the American people are becoming more "air-minded, day by day."

"During the past year," Davison continued, "there has been an extraordinary change in the public attitude toward flying.

"We have thought America far behind other nations in flying, until one morning we awoke to find Col. Charles Lindbergh had spanned the Atlantic ocean in his 'Spirit of St. Louis.' We thought we had achieved supremacy of the air overnight. However it took years of development to acquire this great feat and other important flights credited to American pilots."

"Commercial aviation is already here to stay and in time of national military authorities will thousands of aviators to draw from who will need little training for service."

Taking advantage of modern methods of survey, His Highness the Rajah of Sarawak, has recently completed an aerial survey of some 3,600 square miles of his dominions.

Child Labor Rages In Persia, Reports To London Reveal

London, June 7.—A terrible picture of the appalling conditions of child labor in the Persian carpet weaving industry, where girls are alleged to be sold into virtual slavery for life for $75, is contained in a document shortly to be published by the International Labor Office at Geneva.

The paper reveals that eight years ago, the governing body of the International Labor Office received from British sources evidence that in Kerman and adjacent villages, children from five years of age were herded together in insanitary rooms, making carpets for American and European manufacturers.

Representations were made by Labor Office to Persia. It is stated, as Persia, as a member of the League organizations, is pledged to "secure and maintain fair and humane conditions of labor for men, women and children."

In support of its plea for reform the Labor Office quotes a recent article in the Persia newspaper "Shafag e Surkh," in which it is alleged that the export of carpets from the province of Kerman alone amounts to over $10,000,000 a year, while this sum "over 95 per cent goes for the benefit of foreign companies, leaving the workers only an eating and dying wage."

The girls enter the industry, it is stated, by what is known as a "contract of sale," which means that mothers contract their six or seven year old girls for a period of four or five years, in return for which they receive $75, one-third being paid in advance.

"Thus," remarks the writer, "these unfortunate creatures are sentenced to death—but what a tragic death!"

The Persian government has appointed a commission to inquire into the matter.

More Charm—no blemishes now

UNDERNEATH a clear, smooth skin, healthy tissues—full of rich, red blood—thrive.

No worry about pimples now. Instead there is a certain satisfaction that gives confidence.

All this because rich, red blood is Nature's way of building and sustaining the body.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

You know a clear skin comes from within. Correct the cause—through the blood—and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

Thousands have regained their strength and charm by taking a few bottles of S.S.S.—Nature's own tonic for restoring the appetite—building strength—and clearing the body of so-called skin troubles.

Business Girl Has Come to Stay, Says Veteran Londoner

London, June 7. — The business girl has come to stay, but she will never, except in a few isolated cases, get to the top.

This is the considered opinion of Sir Charles Johnson, 80-year-old former Lord Mayor of London and one of the business world's veterans.

Sir Charles has nothing against the entry of women into business, in fact, he welcomes them as bringing new blood, but he believes that, as workers, they are only average and have not the brilliancy of intellect necessary for a person to rise to the peak of his or her profession.

"When I first started," he said in a recent interview, "a girl was unknown in a business office. I find that in ordinary positions in an office they are most excellent workers and sticklers. But for the bigger and more responsible posts they simply have not the experience and knowledge of the world to make a quick and instant decision in a business office when those decisions are wanted many times an hour."

A marriage license has been issued to Forrest Siller of Salem, and Miss Loreta Halverstadt of Leetonia, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Halverstadt. They are to be married by Rev. H. C. Brillhart.

George Flenneging of East Palestine and Miss Ethel Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman also of East Palestine, but formerly residing at Salem, have obtained a marriage license. They were married at the parsonage of the Lisbon M. E. church by Rev. C. N. Church.

Louis K. Starkweather of Akron, a foreman, and formerly residing in New Mexico, and Miss Margaret L. Coy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Coy, of Wellsville, and a school teacher have secured a marriage license. They are to be married at Wellsville by Rev. Post.

Surprise Gathering

A group of people who are club associates complimented Mr. and Mrs. George Kleinkurt with a surprise party Wednesday evening at their home, Ellsworth ave.

Four tables were engaged in the "500" games, which entertained and a two-course lunch was served, the edibles for which were brought by the guests.

The honorees were presented a linen table cover by the unexpected visitors.

Better Halves Club

Mrs. Fred Munsell, Mrs. Ed. Shriver and Mrs. Frank Redinger won the prizes offered in the progressive euchre games at a meeting of the Better Halves club Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Vincent Malloy, East Fifth st.

The hostess served a delicious lunch. A meeting in two weeks will be with Mrs. David McCloskey, Rose st.

Hostess to Club

Mrs. Kenneth Ziegler, of East Fourth st., entertained her club associates at a dinner Wednesday at her home. The afternoon was enjoyed informally with fancywork a diversion.

Those from out of town were: Mrs. M. A. Small and daughter, and Mrs. Walter Ziegler, of Warren.

The next meeting probably will be on July 10, at Warren.

Quilting Club

Members of the Salem Quilting club spent Wednesday in Canton and visited the stores there and attended the theater.

These women compose the club: Mrs. Nora Bursch, Mrs. Hattie Murphy, Mrs. Jesse Gray, Mrs. Harry Stratton, Mrs. Robert Auld and Mrs. Lyman Whiteleather, Mrs. Fred Oesch, Millville, and Mrs. Paul Dahlke, Danassau.

Mr. Seullion Hostess

Two tables of brides entertained when Mrs. Donald Seullion welcomed her club associates to her home, Tenth st., Wednesday evening. Fish and cake honors were awarded Mrs. Lester Woodman. A lunch was a concluding pleasure. Meeting in two weeks the members will be guests of Mrs. John Wilson, East Seventh st.

W. H. Read, Franklin ave., is in Richmond, Ind., attending the commencement exercises of Earlham college. Before going to Richmond he visited friends at Denison college, Granville.

Margaret Green, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilkinson of Washingtonville, is ill at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ritchey, Lincoln rd.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Brush left Wednesday night for Kansas City to attend the Republican national convention. Mr. Brush is a delegate from the 18th Ohio district.

Carrie Barge Circle

A meeting of the Carrie Barge circle of the Methodist church which was to have been held Thursday evening has been postponed until June 14, when the members will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Matthews, North Union ave. Miss Lenore Starr will have charge of the program.

The 44th annual gathering of the Hoopes and Yates families will be held Saturday at Centennial park.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hummer, of Rose st., have been called to Newcomerstown by the illness of her sister, Mrs. S. M. Wilcox.

Miss Margaret Warrick, of Vine st., who has been ill for the last three weeks, is reported to be getting along well.

Mrs. C. L. Smith of Atwater, and Mr. Smith's brother, L. Smith, of Pittsburgh, called on friends here Wednesday.

Mrs. Vera Miller and baby, of East Palestine, patients at the Salem City hospital, have been discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Harris, of Lorain, spent Wednesday night with relatives here.

Mrs. S. Y. Winder and son, Thomas, arrived here Wednesday from California.

Mrs. J. R. Thomas, of Aurora, spent Monday with friends here.

Prohibition Is Feature

The Democrats, like the Republicans, are confronted with a sharp fight over the platform. The prohibition issue will figure prominently. The ardent drys want a prohibition plank of such sweeping character that it would embarrass Smith because of his wet view.

The farm relief issue, while less acute among the Democrats than the Republicans, may prove troublesome. However, if the farm belt's demands are not met at Kansas City, the Democrats may be able to capitalize on the agrarian unrest with a farm program that is more satisfactory to the middle west.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, minority leader, is expected to be named permanent chairman of the convention, the post held in 1924 by Senator Walsh of Montana. Claude G. Bowers, the Nevada editorial writer, is keynoter and temporary chairman.

Next to prize fights, world series ball games are most profitable to Uncle Sam. From 1924 to 1927 $435,629 was collected from this source. The record was established in 1923 with $120,789 when the St. Louis Cardinals conquered the Yankees last year when the Yanks beat the Pirates the proceeds to the government were but $78,659. The series only went four games.

The amusement taxes have fallen off materially in the last three years as the result of increased exemptions. The bulk of this tax is collected in New York City because of the tremendous number of theaters and places of entertainment.

Under the new revenue law, the prize fight tax was raised from 10 per cent to 25 per cent.

HEARS HELP CALL FROM EXPLORER

Philadelphia Amateur Is Sure He Heard S O S From Italia

Philadelphia, June 7.—A radio SOS which is believed to be from General Umberto Nobile, commander of the lost Italia dirigible on its flight over the arctic regions, was picked up here early today by Albert L. Byler, an amateur receiving set.

Byler is the Reading railway townerman here who recently received the flash of the safe landing of the Bremen fliers on Greenland Island on the same set.

The message was addressed to the world at large and asked for immediate help. It read:

"Rush assistance. Position 84, 15, 10, north; 15, 20, 40, east. Signed: NOBQ"

The message was preceded by the general call letters, "CQ," in English, Byler said. He received the message on 42 meters, which is one of the low wave lengths assigned to amateur use. He received the Greenland Island message on the same wave band.

"The SOS was faint, but clear and distinct," Byler asserted.

The position given in the message is about 300 miles due north of Spitzbergen within the arctic circle.

ANTI-HOOVER

name is not antithetical to the corn belt.

One meeting was attended largely by the supporters of Lowden, Dawes and Watson. They debated the prospects of carrying the fight over the southern contests to the credentials committee and to the convention itself, if necessary, thus appealing from the decision of the national committee. Most of those present were in favor of doing so despite the rather drab outlook. Rarely has a Republican national convention over-ridden its national committee or its credentials committee.

Cole Addresses Meeting

Another meeting was held by anti-organization Republicans from Texas, who had gone down to crushing defeat in the committee a few hours earlier. It, too, was attended by partisans of Lowden, Dawes, Watson and Curtis. Congressman Ralph D. Cole, an Ohio delegate, addressed this gathering.

In another hotel, Senator Watson was holding forth on the importance of the grain belt to Republican success in November.

If the convention next week names a candidate unpopular in the Mississippi valley, he warned, there will be trouble ahead in November. "Go back to '92," said Watson. "The situation was much the same as today. Then as now the Republican leaders extolled the prosperity of industry, but they overlooked the fact that agriculture was in dire straits and needed aid."

"The farmers rose in revolt, defeated President Benjamin Harrison and nearly wrecked the Republican party. Again in 1912, the farmers rose against Taft. His plan of reciprocity with Canada was extremely unpopular in the agricultural states."

With the exception of Roosevelt and Coolidge, who stepped into the White House from the vice-presidency, the Republican party has nominated but two men, Watson pointed out, who lived outside the Mississippi valley—Blaine and Hughes. Both were defeated.

Meantime, the committee on ways and means of stopping Hoover is constantly in session.

Hopkins, Worcester students, will leave Worcester when their exams are over Thursday to attend the G. O. P. convention at Kansas City, June 12. They plan to sell maps to pay expenses and will make the trip in a 1922 flivver. Palmer's home is in Van Wert, O. He has succeeded in getting an appointment as sergeant-at-arms and will be on the floor of the convention all the time it is in session.

A Fashion Model's Diary

By GRACE THORNCLIFFE

She Sells an Unsuitable Dress—and Glories in It.

I SHOULD never admit it—even to as close a friend and least severe critic as a Diary—but I engineered a spiteful sale the other day. To confess is half of explanation. So I might as well ease my soul.

In the first place and my favor, Mrs. Cameron is a simply poisonous person. She dashes into the shop about five minutes before closing time, keeps me showing models until 6:30 gets the whole place in an uproar and leaves without purchasing a thing. That's only one of her pleasant little eccentricities. Another is to order a model that I've already sold to tell Madame that I talked her into buying a frightful dress. Still another is to return a dress after she's worn it only three or four times, giving some trivial complaint as her reason. And into more—but I think I've precluded you sufficiently in my favor.

Appearing late on Monday, just as I was thinking of home and an over-stuffed eclair and a leisurely dinner, she had to be shown everything in the shop.

"And nothing like that pink robe evening dress you talked me into last month. I know I shouldn't have taken it."

Know? Over my politeness bordering conceit, she had done exactly what I had done with that dress. She's enormous of the hips and slight in the shoulders and I nearly perished when she took that talk.

Which got my mind off her and showed her everything I had in stock, unsuited to her, and the storewoman said she knew it. She gushed and gurgled over every thing I showed her.

By about 8:30 I had thought her out, taking a blonde satin dress, a light blue muslin with a white lace collar and a white lace skirt, and a white lace and lace.

Trusted Stranger

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Budd of New York are bemoaning their trusting natures. A stranger who called himself Frank Howard and said he was a wealthy farmer, ingratiated himself with the parents of Grace Budd. They let him take her to a party at his sister's home and it is the last they have seen of her and the gracious stranger.

FOUR SUSPECTS HELD FOR CASE

Quiz Men In Probe of The Slaying of Youth, 17, Night of June 2

Massillon, O., June 7.—While four men in jail here, charged with high-way robbery, and violation of the prohibition law were to be questioned here today by police in connection with the slaying of Lester Boyd, 17, here the night of June 2, detectives continued their search for a 32 calibre revolver, known authorities said, to have been owned by one of the quartet.

If found, and its rifling corresponds with marks of the 32 calibre steel-jacketed bullet taken from young Boyd's body, police declared, they will have almost positive proof who the youth's slayer is.

"We are running down every one of many clues offered us," Police Chief E. M. Serle said, "but all of them so far, have ended against an impenetrable wall of mystery."

Other police officials expressed the opinion young Boyd had been shot through a mistaken identity.

Gas Company Takes Leases for Drilling

The Natural Gas Company of West Virginia plans extensive drilling operations in Knox Township, and has just taken a lease on six different tracts in that township, comprising 312 acres.

Leases have been obtained on the C. D. Burnett farm of 42 acres; Elizabeth Zerbrugg 86 acres; John Gebel 50 acres; John Snyder 11 acres; S. M. Faloon 56 acres; Homer Buck 67 acres.

A school of aeronautics has been established in connection with a military academy in Portland, Oregon.

CABINET HEADS FOR CONVENTION

Only Hoover, Kellogg and Sargent Remain On Job In Capital

Washington, June 7.—All roads lead to Kansas City for members of the cabinet today.

Only three of the president's official family, Secretaries Kellogg, Hoover and Attorney General Sargent, will miss the Republican convention. Kellogg and Hoover will remain at their desks, while Sargent will leave for New England to speak at a college graduation.

While his managers in Kansas City are pressing his candidacy for the nomination, Secretary Hoover will keep in close touch with the convention by telephone and radio. A special telephone wire has been set up in his office and he has a high-powered radio in his home on which he can follow night proceedings.

Secretary of Treasury Mellon and Secretary of Labor Davis will leave Saturday from Pittsburgh for the convention at the Pennsylvania delegation's special train.

Secretary of War Davis, Secretary of Interior Work and Secretary of Navy Wilbur will be on hand in advance of the convention opening, while Secretary of Agriculture Jardine, now on an automobile tour, inspecting anti-corn borer work in Ohio and Indiana, will arrive in Kansas City only a few hours before the gavel falls.

Tomorrow's regular cabinet meeting will be the last until President Coolidge returns in September from his vacation in Wisconsin.

FIRST RUMBLES

In the face of such odds, the farm drive will go right ahead. Its leaders may have in mind a strategical move by which they will lose the fight for their pet plank but compromise by securing the nomination of a candidate friendly to their desired legislation. Such a decision by the convention would uphold President Coolidge, yet meet the wishes of the farm element.

Watson Seeks Plank

Senator James E. Watson, Indiana's favorite son candidate for the Republican nomination, undoubtedly will lead the fight for a "McNary-Haugen plank."

"The basis of the agricultural plank must be the plank of 1924," Watson told International News Service today. "We must rectify how congress tried to redeem that pledge by the passage of a farm relief bill, embodying the equalization fee, and that we are still of the opinion that it is the one way to redeem effectively that pledge. The plank must declare in favor of a farm relief process creating a governmental agency that will cause the farmers to pay the cost of the relief through an equalization fee or its equivalent, while actually bringing them relief."

Former Senator Charles Rawson of Iowa, was another midwest leader declaring in favor of an "equalization fee" plank.

"We have had too many generalities in the farm relief planks of the past," said Rawson. "We must have a plank this year, declaring for adequate farm relief through the medium of an equalization fee or its equivalent."

"Likens Bill to 'Free Silver'" From the Hoover supporters came an entirely different prediction. Former Senator Richard P. Ernst, of Kentucky, was outspoken in denouncing the farm proposal for a "McNary-Haugen plank."

"The platform," Ernst declared, "must laud the Coolidge administration and the wise policies the president followed to bring prosperity to the American people. On farm relief, it must pledge a legislative remedy, other than the McNary-Haugen bill. That measure if endorsed by the Republican party, will be as harmful to us as was the old free silver issue to the Democrats a few decades ago. The party cannot afford to endorse it."

Whereas storm clouds loomed over the farm plank, the rest of the platform seemed likely to be agreed upon even before the convention assemblies. Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, who will be chairman of the platform committee, already has begun to draft the prosperity, financial and tariff planks. He will "point with pride" to the national debt reduction, to tax reduction in government and to tax reduction in government. The farm plank, these will be the "Big Three" issues upon which the Republican party rides to its fate in November, so far as the platform is concerned.

Markets

OILS TAKE LEAD

New York, June 7.—The oils and special industrial stocks led an upward movement at the opening of the market today. The motors and rails were somewhat irregular. Radio Corporation recovered 2 1/2% at 194; International Paper up 1 1/2% at 194 1/2; General Electric up 1 1/2% at 156; International Combustion Engineering up 1/2% at 89 1/2; American Can up 1/2% at 87 1/2; General Motors sold at 191 1/2 to 192 1/2, up 2 1/2 to 3 1/2; Packard advanced 1 to 80, while Studebaker lost 1/2 at 75. Producers & Refiners jumped 2 to 28 1/2; General Alaph up 1 at 82 1/2; Atlantic Refining up 1 1/2 at 123 1/2; and Sinclair up 1/2 at 24 1/2. Chesapeake & Ohio lost 1 1/2 at 193, while Southern Railway advanced 1 to 157 1/2.

Hurried short covering and pool buying of the industrial stocks which figured in Wednesday's closing decline resulted in sharp rallies in prices at the beginning of trading today, lack of confirmation of the latest "political scare" which had influenced some of the short selling in yesterday's market influenced prompt short covering of Radio, General Motors, American Can, etc., and it required a very short period for Radio to travel the distance between yesterday's closing at 191 1/2 to fractionally above 200. General Motors recovered about 4 points and American Can 3.

In spite of these vigorous recoveries the market as a whole displayed a little rallying power, and heavy development in the market leaders near the end of the first hour. On the eve of the political conventions, Wall Street was generally of the opinion that "anything might happen" in the big party camps, and it is no secret that the leaders in the financial district are still hopeful of the drafting of Calvin Coolidge for the presidential race.

The rails and oils responded with slightly higher prices to the second consecutive million-car week in freight loadings and the firming up of wholesale gasoline prices. Copper were steady, though lacking the aggressiveness displayed in recent sessions. Warner Quinlan featured the specialties, moving forward under the impetus of persistent buying. Motors stocks started the day at a higher range of prices, but gave ground as selling orders swept over the market. Bears were reported "feeling for the top" and the bulls extended little support to their favorites.

The call loan renewal rate was 6 per cent with no definite sign of permanent easing of the money market. Cotton recovered a few points, but wheat was reactionary with prices down nearly 3 cents a bushel.

BYRD'S PLANE IS READY FOR POLE

Test Radio Equipment At Dayton Before Taking Off For New York

Dayton, June 7.—The all metal Ford monoplane, built for Commander Richard E. Byrd's flight to the South Pole, will hop off from Detroit tomorrow for New York City preparatory to the start on the South Pole expedition scheduled for August 20.

Byrd's ship, piloted by Bernt Balchen, trans-Atlantic aviator, was brought to Wright Field here late yesterday for a test of improved radio equipment.

The tests will be completed today, it was said. On completion of these tests the big ship will fly back to Detroit late today and will then hop off for New York tomorrow, the reports here said.

Byrd's plane has been christened the "Floyd Bennett" in memory of the daring trans-Atlantic aviator who sacrificed his life to fly to the aid of the German-Italian crew of the Bremen then stranded on the lonely island of Greenland off the coast of Labrador.

Bennett was to have accompanied Byrd on the polar flight as second in command.

Seven companions accompanied Balchen when he piloted the plane here yesterday. Among them were John Collins, chief radio engineer of the Ford company and Howard Mason, radio man of the Byrd expedition.

Radio equipment on the flight yesterday worked perfectly in spite of adverse weather conditions, the radio men said this morning.

FILM NOTABLES ESCAPE BLAST

Chaplin Unhurt; Director In Critical Condition In Cafe Fire

Hollywood, Calif., June 7.—Charlie Chaplin and a party of seven celebrities escaped unhurt when a mysterious explosion early today wrecked the Russian Eagle cafe, rendezvous of film notables.

Ten other persons, including seven firemen, were injured by the blast which followed a fire of undetermined origin.

One of the blast victims, Theodore Lodiginsky, film director and former general in the Russian army, was reported in a critical condition.

Besides Chaplin those who were warned in time to escape injury included the Marquis de la Falais, husband of Gloria Swanson; Jack Dempsey and Estelle Taylor; John McCormick, his wife, Colleen Moore and Renee Adoree.

PAUL STRATTON IS ASSISTANT CAMP DIRECTOR

Scout Executive Charles E. Felton and Scoutmaster Homer Herman of East Liverpool left today to attend the Boy Scout Camp Leaders Training school at Camp Ro-Fre-La, Columbus.

While there they will receive instruction in the latest camping methods under the direction of L. L. McDonald, William C. Wessel, Capt. Fred C. Mills and Gunner Berg all of New York City.

Herman will make an intensive study of swimming and life saving methods under Capt. Fred C. Mills, of the American Red Cross and national director of swimming with the Boy Scouts of America.

The scouts this year secured the services of Paul Stratton, biology teacher in Salem High school and an expert teacher of nature, who will be assistant camp director. In addition to these men Hugh Nile of Wellsville and Fred Detweiler of Columbiana will attend camp as leaders. Both are expert swimmers and will round out a capable life guard for the swimming periods.

Said bonds will be due and payable as follows:

One bond in its serial order on June 1st in each of the years from 1929 to 1934, both inclusive.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of raising money in anticipation of the cost of special assessments for the improvement of Aetna and Grant Streets from Broadway to Tremble Avenue by the reconstruction of a sanitary sewer therein to be approximately 2,650 feet and to be constructed of eight-inch sewer pipe together with related structures, conduits and under authority of the laws of Ohio and of Section 2295-24 of the General Code of Ohio, and under and in accordance with a certain ordinance of the said City, being Ordinance No. 280417, passed on the 17th day of April, 1928.

Said bonds will be sold to the highest and best bidder for not less than par and accrued interest. Any one desiring to do so, may present a bid or bids for such bonds, based upon their bearing a different rate of interest than specified in this advertisement, provided, however, that where a fractional interest rate is bid, such fraction shall be one-quarter of one per cent or multiples thereof.

All bids must state the number of bonds bid for and the gross amount of bid and accrued interest to date of delivery. All bids to be accompanied with cash or check to be retained by the treasurer of the City of five per centum of the amount of bonds bid for, upon condition that if the bid is accepted the cash or check will be used as down payment and may be issued as above set forth within ten days from the time of award and check to be retained by the City if said condition is not fulfilled.

The City of Salem reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Bids should be sealed and endorsed "Bids for Aetna-Grant Streets Improvement" and delivered to HELEN R. WOERTHER, City Auditor, June 7, 1928.

Chinese, Japanese, Colombian Included In Ohio State Classes

Columbus, June 7.—Three foreign countries, 27 states of the union and the District of Columbia are represented in the class to be graduated here Monday from Ohio State university. The great bulk of the class of 1200 as usual is from Ohio, with scores of communities represented.

Six Chinese, a Japanese and a Colombian are included in the class. The Colombian is E. A. Uruea, of Santa Marta, Colombia. He is a candidate for the degree of bachelor of chemical engineering.

The lone Japanese is Kisaku Kitsuta. He is the prospective recipient of the degree of doctor of philosophy. His wife and infant son are with him here.

One Chinese is a candidate for the doctorate in ceramics. He is Kai Ching Lu, of Peking. Three others are aspirants for the degree of master of science, specializing in chemical engineering. They are Yun Hao Feng, of Tsunan; Chieh Ma, of Homan; and Wei Yank, of Shensi.

The two other Chinese are Ting Ching Shih, of Taiyuan, from the college of liberal arts; and Hui Lin Kuan, of Shanghai, in commerce and administration.

LEETONIA

The Leetonia Kiwanis club held its weekly meeting on Tuesday evening, in St. Paul's Lutheran chapel where the Priscilla club served the dinner.

For the last several months, the club has held its meeting in the parish house of the Methodist church, where the Busy Bee society served.

The meeting Tuesday evening was the regular monthly business meeting of the club with President R. C. Harrold in charge. There were four members of the Lisbon Kiwanis club present as visitors of the local organization. Dr. T. T. Church of Salem, county health commissioner was also present. The club voted to give $100 to the County Health League for use in the County Fresh Air Camp this summer. The club will attend an inter-city meet of Kiwanis clubs to be held in Wells-ville on Tuesday evening, June 12.

Dr. H. C. Brillhart returned home late Tuesday night from Springfield, where he was in attendance at a meeting of the board of Wittenberg college.

Miss Mildred Williams has accepted a position in Sebring, as filing clerk in a notary public's office. Miss Williams is a member of the graduating class of the Leetonia High school, class of '28.

Betty Flickenger of Sebring is at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Williams, here, and will remain for her summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dean and sons, Edward, Lawrence and Vernard, P. B. Lavelle, returned to Leetonia on Tuesday morning from South Bend, Ind., where Edward and Lawrence are students of Notre Dame university. Edward was a member of the graduating class this year.

Mrs. Henry Kurtz of Warren was the guest of Mrs. Emil Holz the early part of the week.

Little Anna Mary McDewitt is visiting for a few weeks in the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. John McDewitt of Lisbon.

Autograph King of London Has Large Letter Collection

London, June 7.—What he claims is the largest collection of contemporary autographs in the world is owned by W. Reginald Bray, known here as the "Autograph King," who during his lifetime has collected the signatures of more than 10,000 celebrities.

The latest additions to his collection are the signatures of Captain Hermann Korch, Baron von Huenfeld and Major Fitzmaurice, the trans-Atlantic fliers. Among the signatures he possesses are those of P. P. K. X, Lloyd George and many others.

Bray's system is to go through the newspapers and cut out paragraphs and articles relating to people who have become famous. He sends them a letter enclosing a postcard on which is a printed request for an autograph, and a space for the signature.

Obtained By Mail

"I have never approached a man or woman whose autograph I wanted personally," Bray said in discussing his unique collection. "All the signatures have been obtained through the post."

"Every profession and interest in life is represented among my collection, which includes the signatures of royalty, famous soldiers and sailors of all nationalities, leading armers, writers, politicians, business men and celebrities of the stage and the world of sport."

"Each one of these signatures was obtained without influence or any payment."

Some years ago, before he became engrossed in his autograph-collecting, there was probably no man in England more disliked by the postoffice than Bray. At that time his hobby was to send through the post all kinds of freak postcards and letters in order to find out just what the postoffice would accept according to their own regulation.

These included a saucepan, a bicycle pump, a starched collar, a rabbit's skull, a monster calico hat, a black bowler hat, a bow tie, a pair of suspenders, a fan, a dog biscuit, a brandy flask and a pill box. All were sent without wrapping, being merely stamped and addressed.

None From Lindbergh

He once sent a letter addressed to a resident of the Moon, which was returned marked "insufficiently addressed."

Bray's greatest sorrow is that in his collection there is no autograph of Lindbergh.

"But perhaps I shall get it some day," he said.

In his hunt for signatures, Bray has sent out 17,390 requests by post, each bearing a stamped, self-addressed postcard for reply. He has received 10,000 answers and he estimates the cost of his collection—in stamps—at $325, but someday it may be priceless.

Special crossword puzzles, in which letters are "pegged" into squares on cardboard forms, are being made in Paris for the use of blind people.

STUDEBAKER

The Great Independent

wins automobile dealers as well as public with CHAMPION CARS

26% more Studebaker Dealers this year than ever before

FOR nine consecutive months retail deliveries of Studebaker-built automobiles have increased over those of the corresponding months of a year previous. This is in the face of a decrease in sales for the industry as a whole.

The swing toward Studebaker is the inevitable result of adding spectacular performance to One-Profit value—and then proving the stamina and speed of the cars by severe tests under American Automobile Association supervision.

All official records for fully equipped stock cars are now held by Studebaker. Never before has one manufacturer thus swept the boards.

When such performance can be bought at Studebaker's remarkable One-Profit prices, why be content with less than a champion?

This table shows the number of Studebaker dealers in the United States today compared with totals for previous years.

1928	3864
1927	3054
1926	3054
1925	3036
1924	2924
1923	2966
1922	3000
1921	2384
1920	2216
1919	2176
1918	1800

Automobile dealers have been quick to follow the trend of the buying public toward Studebaker.

Studebaker's sensational proofs of speed and endurance come from engineering genius, quality materials, precision manufacture and rigid inspections. Because of these, any Studebaker may safely be driven 40 miles an hour the day you buy it. Motor oil need be changed but once in 2500 miles. The President, Commander and Dictator require chassis lubrication only after each 2500 miles.

Today in Studebaker and in Studebaker alone, you can buy the utmost in every phase of motoring—and behind it a name that for 76 years has meant dependable transportation. Come in, and drive a champion!

COLUMBIANA

The annual Daily Vacation Bible school conducted under the auspices of all the Columbian churches opened Monday at the school building under the direction of the superintendent, Rev. E. F. Wiest. He is assisted by the pastors of the other churches and by a host of volunteers from the various churches. While the attendance the first two days was kept down by the rainy weather, 116 children were present on Tuesday, and this will be increased each day, no doubt. The school will continue for six weeks.

Mrs. J. V. Stewart was hostess Tuesday to members of the Harmony club, when she entertained them at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Century club, Schenley park, Pittsburgh. Following the luncheon they went through Carnegie Museum. Those who enjoyed the delightful affair in addition to the hostess were: Mrs. H. Bookwalter, Mrs. S. E. Stewart, Mrs. W. H. Read, Mrs. E. L. Dieffenbacher, Mrs. S. S. Weaver, Mrs. J. J. Quincey, Mrs. L. J. Garrard, Mrs. Elizabeth Decker, and also Mrs. Callie of Oakmont, Pa.

At the meeting of Pandora Rebekah lodge Monday evening election of officers for the next six months was held. Mrs. Noreen Mollenkopf will be the next noble grand and Mrs. Anna Haggerty, vice-grand. These, together with their appointive officers, will be installed at an early July meeting. Owing to the district convention at East Palestine, the meeting of the Past Grand club, scheduled for June 14, will be postponed until June 21.

The Daughters of the King class of the Lutheran Sunday school will hold their June business and social meeting Friday evening at the church. The devotionals will be in charge of Miss Mayme Shaeffer and Mrs. C. E. Krumm will present the missionary topic. The hostess committee is composed of Miss Naomi Gleckler, Miss Florence Hively, Mrs. George Muntean, Mrs. Emery Metz, Miss Lois Harmon, Miss Albert Esenwein, Mrs. P. C. Clark and Mrs. Guy Fisher.

Tuesday evening the Loyal class of the Christian Sunday school held a social at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Funk, County Line rd. On Monday evening the Christian Endeavor society of this church held a winner soiree at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Schurenberger, near Washingtonville.

Rev. C. E. Krumm will represent the Columbian Rotary club next week at the international convention to be held at Minneapolis, Minn.

ANOTHER SOUTH POLE EXPEDITION

Commander Jeffrey Plans To Take Planes and 25 Men to Antarctic

New York, June 7.—Plans for another south polar expedition, the third in preparation, have been announced by Commander Douglas George Jeffrey, R. N., retired, who expects to lead an expedition of 25 men, equipped with two planes, into the antarctic in September.

Jeffrey emphasized that there will be no direct competition between him and the other two explorers, Commander Byrd and Captain Wilkins, who will be in the antarctic at the same time.

Commander Jeffrey, a veteran of one of the late Sir Ernest Shackleton's trips to the antarctic expects to number among his companions, Captain Arthur Argles, who hopped off on a trans-Atlantic flight this morning as navigator for Mabel Boll.

TOWN OFFICIALS HIT BY REPORT

Findings for Recovery in Lorain Village Made By State Men

Columbus, June 7.—Claims that Grafton Village officials were illegally compensated in connection with village contracts, that "false methods" were used by members of the Grafton board of public affairs for the purpose of evading the law forbidding public officers from being interested in the sale of material and supplies to a municipality, and that former findings for recovery, totaling $1223.91, remained unpaid, featured the report made public today by State Auditor Joseph Tracy, covering an examination of Grafton Village records.

The examination of this Lorain county village was made by State Examiners J. A. Kenney and S. A. Boltz and dealt with the period from March 14, 1925, to April 2, last.

The report held that illegal payments, totaling $566.54, were made to A. Ruder and to D. C. Bartlett for labor and material. The examiners claimed that Ruder, as a member of the village board of public affairs, owed the village treasury $475.54, while Bartlett, a village councilman, owed the treasury $90.90. Retention was left to the judgment of the village officials by the state examiners.

BROADWAY SEES GIANTS CERTAIN TO COP PENNANT

White Way Pool Rooms Leaning to McGraw In National

BUT WALL ST. IS NOT SO SURE NOW

Four Clubs Are In Close Race For Flag; Giants Pitching Off

New York, June 7.—For some reason or maybe none at all, Broadway has decided that the New York Giants are going to win the National League pennant and is making its bets accordingly.

In several of the up-town pool rooms today, the Giants were held at the rather short price of 2 to 1, whereas one could get a half dollar extra for one's money provided it was riding on the Reds, Cubs or Cardinals. The Pirates were 3 to 1. There may be sense in these odds but not much.

Wall street, for example, knows the nickel just how much a bet should be worth and has rated the five admitted contenders in a dead heat somewhere in the neighborhood of 3 to 1, which is as it should be considering the fact that the Reds, Cards, Giants and Cubs are separated by only three games and the Pirates are conceded to be better than they have looked to date. This point, in fact, is very well taken. They couldn't be worse.

The fact of the matter is that there isn't a stand-out club in the Big Five and, if the so called sharpshooters are betting the Giants, they are doing so on a hunch. McGraw's abiding difficulty has been to get more than two pitchers who can go out there and finish what they started. The outfit has made its share of errors and Jackson, once said to be the "perfect shortstop," has blown himself to a most indifferent season so far.

Pitching Is Question
But pitching, or lack of it, is the Giants' halter, in the final analysis or in the first, for that matter. They say McCraw could have had Burwell, who finally landed with the Pirates from Indianapolis; it is true, in any case, that he made no effort to bid in Clarence Mitchell, who has remained in the league well past his time purely on his ability to harass the Giants. He relieved Alexander and helped to beat them again yesterday, so maybe McCraw is due to release another interview. The last one made him say that he was satisfied with the Giants' pitching.

However, there isn't a contender that hasn't left some question unanswered to date. With the Reds, the question is whether Critz, around whom the success of the outfit revolves, will be able to carry his pace through the warm months ahead. They say he is boiled down some 12 pounds under his normal weight already. You can bet about the hitting of Callaghan, Pichich and Purdy and the day to day effectiveness of Cincinnati pitching but, when you have spoken your little piece, the situation reverts to this fact; unless they can continue to reel off their remarkable run of double plays, via Critz, the Reds are just a ball club.

Cards Weak on Mound
The Cards have been weakened so far at a point where everyone expected them to be strong. Alexander and Haines, who won some 42 games between them last year, have won only about half of their games and Sherdel also is having an ordinary season. Rhem and Reinhardt have been carrying the club and the intellectual claim Reinhardt won't stand prospering. Anyhow, the Cardinals look no better than anybody else in the race, which automatically prohibits a comparison with the Pirates. They simply have been shot to pieces with one thing and another, mostly both, but they have too much speed to run in the company they are keeping at present.

As for the Cubs, they seem to be facing the old question of balance. The club looks great when it is winning and the Cubs looked even better than that when they were rushing through 13 straight earlier in the year. Since then, however, they have dropped nine of their last 15, most of them on the road. The record seem to prove that the Cubs are not a good traveling club.

FIGHT RESULTS

At Akron — Battling Levinsky, Philadelphia defeated Emmet Rocco, Ellwood City, Pa., (10). Jimmy Darrah, Akron, outpointed Charley Shere, Sandusky, (6). Eddie Ruttman, Akron, knocked out Jimmy Hertz, East Liverpool in first round of a scheduled 6-round bout. Clarence Dyer, Akron, and Gus Christy, Youngstown, fought 4 rounds to a draw.

Wed Seven Times In 14 Years; Is Seeking New Divorce Now

Muscatine, Ia., June 7. — Seven time married in 14 years! And now she is trying to get still another divorce. That's the record of Mrs. Elsie Lord. Her full name is Mrs. Elsie Jesse Laren Smith Crossley Seaman Metzger Lord.

She has just filed suit in district court here against Howard Lord, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. He beat her with a hammer, she alleges, breaking one of her arms.

Lord happens to be Hubby No. 6 as well as No. 7. Shortly after her first marriage to him, she obtained a divorce, only to wed him again a few months later. But now she says she is "through with him for good."

WIFFLER HELPED TURN OUT WINNING TEAMS IN LAST TWO YEARS

Following two year's service with Salem High school as assistant varsity coach, Walter A. Wiffler will leave to either return to college at La Crosse, Wis., or accept a coaching position with one of the western schools near his home in La Crosse. Wiffler resigned his post with Salem High school recently.

"Walt" as he was called by members of the athletic teams, with whom he immediately became popular, came to Salem direct from La Crosse in 1927 and played a prominent part in rounding out Salem's first undefeated football team in the school's history, and later championship basketball and track aggregations.

He had full charge of Junior High athletics as well as the coaching of the High school reserve squads.

During his work in Salem High, the school has turned out winning teams in each of its three sports. He gave excellent assistance to Head Coach Wilbur J. Springer.

In football he presented a new style of play, used in the west, that was used to great advantage by the undefeated team of 1927. The wing-spread pass formation was one of the most used plays by that team. Wiffler introduced the play.

His decision to change schools came as a surprise to the fans of the city and county, who expected him to stay, due to his outstanding successes. Offers from schools in Wisconsin, where he won fame on the gridiron, in basketball and in track while at La Crosse have poured in on him since his decision to change, but he is indefinite as to his future plans.

His first decision upon resigning was to return to school to finish his degree work in physical education.

NATIONAL HOME RUN RACE CLOSE

Del Bissonette Leading; Yanks Shell Uhle and Win at Cleveland

New York, June 7. — The only home run race this season that is close enough to be exciting is in the National League race, where Del Bissonette, Hack Wilson, Sunny Jim Bottomley and Rogers Hornsby are staging a merry battle for circuit clotting honors. Bissonette, with a total of ten, is leading the pack today by one.

The Brooklyn first sacker drove in five runs yesterday as the Robins trimmed Cincinnati 8 to 5, and now leads the league in that department, as well as in home runs. The Reds now enjoy a lead of only two games over the Cardinals and Giants, who are practically tied for second place.

Jack Hendricks, manager of the Porkville outfit, spent the afternoon wondering why he ever let Rube Bressler get away from him. The Rube led Brooklyn's attack with four hits in as many times at bat.

Vic Aldridge of the Giants ran himself ragged in getting three base hits against the Cardinals and was yanked from the mound in the seventh. Then the Cards scored six runs off his successor, Faulkner, and went on to win by an 11 to 6 score. Old Clarence Mitchell, who pitched for St. Louis after Alexander was kayoed, won his first start for the Red birds.

Pinch-hitter Cy Williams of the Phillies smacked a home run against the Cubs but his mates couldn't help him and the Quakers lost, 5 to 3.

George Uhle, Cleveland mound ace who used to be poison to the New York Yankees, was shelled off the landscape by the world's champions. With Herb Pennock holding the fort, the Yanks won in a romp, 8 to 3.

The Athletics lost to the Browns, 5 to 2, and now trail the Yanks by nine games. Sam Gray, former Mackman, chalked up his ninth victory. Cobb collected three hits.

Rain cancelled all other games scheduled.

English Sailor Holds Ticket On Winner

London, June 7. — Masten Webb is just an English sailor working on a coal ship, but he's also a millionaire, although he probably doesn't know it yet.

His ship is due at Colombo, India, today. When it arrives, Webb will learn that the ticket he drew in the Calcutta sweepstakes for Fortstead, the winning ticket is worth about $1,250,000, if he still has it in his possession.

Writing with the fingernail as a pen is an old Persian art, a splendid specimen of which was presented to King George by the King of Afghanistan on the latter's recent visit to England.

One Game Tonight

The Methodist church "mush" ball team will play the City Hall outfit tonight at Centennial park in the only game of the city league to be played this week. Friday's game has been cancelled due to the Salem High alumni banquet.

TWO BUCKEYES DROPPED FROM OLYMPICS LIST

Columbus, June 7. — Two of the Ohio State university Olympic possibilities have dropped from the candidate list for the Amsterdam trip within the past few days. These are Ted Lorber, fencer, and "Phin" Guthrie, former hurdling star of the Scarlet and Gray cinder squad. Lorber struck a snag in recent eastern trials when he finished third in a group from which only two men are to be selected to wear the U. S. shield in the 1928 Olympiad. Lorber was champion of the Western Conference in 1927 in sabres.

Guthrie, who equalled the world's record for the 120-yard high hurdles when at Ohio State, was a member of the 1924 Olympic team and placed in his specialty. Press of business is the cause of his voluntary dropping from active competition.

The selection of Mike Chambers, varsity trainer, as trainer for the American athletes was announced some time ago as was the strange hold that Rose Boozek apparently has on a berth on the swimming team. Whether or not Harry Steel will be able to repeat his performance of 1924 will not be known until the Olympic wrestling finals in Grand Rapids, Mich., the first week in July. In 1924, Steel fought his way to the heavyweight wrestling crown in the Conference and then went on to the Olympics to repeat his victory.

Ohio State's remaining hopes lie in the track department where the National Collegiate Friday and Saturday at Chicago will largely tell the tale. George Simpson and Howard Kries, of the dashes, Dick Rockaway and Francis Pierce in the hurdles; Pete Anson in the broad jump, high jump and hop, step and jump; Pete Rasmus in the discus throw; Joe Ughely in the hammer throw, and John Loomis in the 880-yard run, have all won enough Conference and Relay meet honors to put them in the "favorite" class in the Chicago meet.

HILL AND DALE MEET PLANNED FOR NEXT YEAR

Columbus, June 7.—In addition to the Ohio interscholastic basketball, baseball, tennis, golf and track and field tournaments that have been held under auspices of Ohio State university, co-operating with the Ohio High School Athletic association, a new athletic enterprise is also being planned for next year. As with the others, this new feature, a state-wide cross country meet, will be under the direction of State High School Commissioner H. R. Townsend, with the athletic department at Ohio State university serving as host.

Present plans call for a race over a two-and-a-half mile course starting from the Buckeye stadium, Saturday morning, Nov. 3. While only five men will be calculated in the scoring, a total of seven may be entered by the competing school. There will be no classes such as are evident in other interscholastic competition, but the entire field will be run in one race.

It is very probably that the Columbus city meet, which was instituted last year, will be run prior to the state affair over the same course.

Competitors in the state meet will be guests of the University Athletic association at the Princeton-Ohio State football game in the afternoon. Considerable interest is reported by university and high school officials in the meet.

Active training will begin during the summer since strict physical requirements will be imposed on all competitors before they may enter. Cross country is expected to greatly improve the class of distance runners in the high schools of the state.

Bellevue, O.—Bellevue is up to it tricks again. Memorial day, when the rest of the state was dividing its time between sunshine and showers, but all at a comfortable temperature, it snowed in Bellevue enough snow to cover the ground for a time.

HUDSON
On the Open Road

Where great performance is Master Indeed!

Its performance has centered on Hudson the most dramatic public interest ever extended any car. Thousands, riding daily, are carrying the story world-wide.

They tell us that they travel faster in city traffic, because of flashing getaway, swift, smooth acceleration and instantaneous control that easy steering and four-wheel braking give.

This extra range and activity of Hudson power, as everyone knows, are advantages exclusive to the Super-Six principle and to its companion invention on which patents recently were granted.

In every phase of performance there is effortless ease, from its smooth, swift getaway, to sustained high speed, and back to the soft instantaneous stopping action of its four-wheel brakes. Power is so smoothly delivered in all ranges of performance that you are scarcely conscious of it.

With the development and increased capacity of the Super-Six principle came also the creation of a chassis engineered in every detail to provide safely, continuously and economically for the speed, power and safety of the motor.

A thrill, never to be forgotten, is in the store for you when you take your first ride in the new Hudson Super-Six.

"OLD GOLD ran away with the show," says H. B. Warner
in blindfold cigarette test

"It sounded like an all-star cast when they handed me the four leading cigarette brands to smoke in the blindfold test. But one of the four ran away with the show . . . for I picked OLD GOLD instantly. There's a mildness and a smoothness to OLD GOLD that makes it stand out in any company."

H. B. Warner

H. B. WARNER
star of both the footlights and the silver screen
His latest successes were in "The King of Kings" and "Sorell and Son."

Why you can pick them . . . in the dark

Three types of leaves grow on the tobacco plant . . . coarse tobacco leaves, irritating to the throat . . . withered ground-leaves, without taste or aroma . . . and the heart-leaves, rich in cool and fragrant smoking qualities. Only the heart-leaves are used in OLD GOLD.

How this test was made

The test was conducted by the representative of a leading Eastern University and a disinterested witness selected by them. Mr. Warner was asked to smoke each of the four leading brands while blindfolded, clearing his taste with coffee between smokes. Only one question was asked: "Which one do you like best?"

"THE HAWK'S NEST"
Another kind of underworld—that of a large city's populous and mysterious Chinatown—furnishes the background of "The Hawk's Nest," starring Milton Sills, which opens at the Grand today.
This First National Picture marks a distinct departure for Sills, who appears in the early part of the story as a disfigured war veteran, with a makeup a la Lon Chaney.
The story, which concerns two underworld resorts, operated largely to thrill tourists, is handled in unique manner by Benjamin Christensen, who achieves some of the finest trick camera effects that have been seen since "The Last Laugh" and "Variety." The air of Chinatown is symbolized as much by camera work as it is by actual Chinese architecture. The picture being given and the wired mystery of a "thriller" largely through such camera work.
Sills operates one of the underworld cafes for tourists, while Montagu Love, another underworld gangster, operates a rival establishment, which is attempting to put Sills' place, "The Hawk's Nest," out of business through framing Sills' partner, played by Mitchell Lewis. The enmity between Sills and Love is deepened through Sills' protecting the dancer, played by Doris Kenyon, who is sought by Love.
Mystery, thrills, and the tense atmosphere of the underworld furnish the background for this fast moving drama, one of the best in which Sills has appeared for many months. A particularly admirable performance is given by the distinguished Chinese actor, Sojin. The story is by Wid Gunning, who also produced the film for First National Pictures.

Before Baby Comes

"Mother's Friend" is a comfort to expectant mothers. Externally applied, it relieves prenatal distress by relaxing tight tissues and muscles. And it is so soothing. Its daily use makes the skin soft and pliable.
Three generations of mothers have praised "Mother's Friend." "I think it is worth its weight in gold," writes Mrs. Lelah Mabe, Lawsonville, N. C. "My baby was born without hardly any pain and it was all due to Mother's Friend."

you will have to pay tribute to Bebe Daniels, who came to the State last night in her latest Paramount comedy "She's a Sheik."
Never has the athletically inclined star been seen to better advantage and, judging from the reaction of the first night audience, the photoplay is in for a successful run.
The picture starts out with a bang thanks to the efforts of William Powell, as the heavy, and before long it is picked up by the star and carried through at a merry pace. The story revolves around the activities of the granddaughter of the sheik who, after an education received in the United States, returns to her Algerian home with some distinct and novel ideas upon how to capture a male.
These she puts into practice against the desert blackguard, picking as the target a young and handsome captain in the Foreign Legion who cannot reconcile himself as to the appeal of either Miss Daniels or her tactics. He dislikes, particularly, being placed in a leopard's cage for the purpose of being tamed and although the audience sympathizes with the captain for a battered vanity, it does provide many laughs.
Richard Arlen, of whom so much has been written concerning his performance in "Wings" does well as handsome Captain Colton and William Powell likewise does excellent work as the desert badman, Josephine Dunn, Paul McAllister, Al Fremont, James Bradbury, Jr., and Billy Franey are good in their respective roles.

STYLE EDICTS
Paris, June 7.—The hand that rocks the cradle—and those that don't—must be smartly gloved these days, say fashion experts in Paris who are constantly bringing out striking new models.
There are many "fancy" gloves which are, in reality, very simple, suitable for wear with a particular costume or on dress occasions. Some are of plain kid, one-button length and slightly flared for an inch with their edges finished with a cord of silver, gold or vivid color. Gloves with small turned-back cuffs trimmed with Beauvais embroidery are also attractive and serve to give a touch of color to a dark costume.
Alexandrine is showing a new greenish grey glove in ideal tone for the new colors known as bronze-clair and "egg-shell." This glove-maker prefers the beige glove in pale tones with a golden cast or the palest trace of rose.
He is also well known for his eccentric gauntlet types. One of his new models in white kid has the full cuff covered with silver spangles. Another in black is embroidered in red, rose and blue.
Jouvin has created a new glove for the white glove with a cuff of strong contrasting colors to serve as dainty accessory to the smart afternoon or dinner toilette.
A separate gauntlet which can be worn over the ordinary street glove is a new idea for the motorist which has recently appeared in Paris. It is of still tan-colored leather and fastens around the wrist with a strap and nickel buckle and having all the advantages so far as protection from the wind and rain that would come from the regular gauntlet glove.
Aluminum is dug up in the form of clay.

Modern Table Decoration
Housewives are becoming aware of the importance of modern table decoration. The size of the table, the formality of the meal, the linens and china used, govern the style of decoration.
Colored linens for instance, call for matching china, flowers and candles. The Cubist china and silver are used with the Cubist patterned linens. It is a fad, but is consistently carried out by its admirers. Some of the new sterling silver sets are bewildering angular compositions to the eye of the uninitiated. Used with the gaily colored angularly designed china over the striped and blocked cloth, it gives one a sort of brainstorm until one gets used to it. The candles are likely to be square and decorated to match the china, and the flowers usually used are artificial, china, glass, beads, wood pulp, feather or china. Of course, this table is the extreme example of the fad.
Over the damask cloth, which is used for formal occasions, the centerpiece may be a fruit bowl of salt glaze, four candlesticks to match with rectangular flower boxes or urns of the same china, used between the candlesticks. The little flower holders may be filled with pansies, violets or any of the low-growing flowers. With salt glaze service plates, and the flat silver for five courses laid, the white, gold decorated, candles and the white, gold decorated dishes complete this formal table. Crystal glasses are used and gold and white place cards are laid across the folded napkins.
For those who like color and a less formal dinner arrangement, try the linen with the wide blue border, the blue decorated china, candlesticks to match and holding tall blue candles, and a flower bowl of the china filled with the blue corn flowers. Dainty shaded blue glass tumblers that look like flowers may be used and the necessary flat silver laid. Little lace baskets filled with candied mint and rose leaves may have a blue and white place card attached.
A butterfly table is charming with the yellow linens, white and gold, or the yellow china, yellow candles, a brass bowl filled with buttercups and a yellow painted butterfly place cards.

"Never-fail" Recipe for Crushed Strawberry Jam

Once you have tried the new short-bill method of making jams and jellies with Certo you will discard the old tedious, uncertain way as an out-of-date piece of kitchen drudgery.
Ten glasses of the most delicious Strawberry Jam can be made by the following recipe quickly, easily and with perfect results every time.

Crush about 2 quarts of berries one layer at a time so that each berry is actually crushed or broken up to a pulp. This allows fruit to quickly absorb the sugar during the short boil, and prevents fruit rising to the top or floating. Best results are obtained by running berries through a food chopper. Measure 4 level cups (2 lbs.) crushed berries into a large kettle, add 7 level cups (3 lbs.) sugar and mix well. Use hottest fire and stir constantly before and while boiling. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard from 1 to 2 minutes, remove from fire and stir in 1/2 cup Certo. Skin and stir constantly for just 5 minutes after taking from fire to cool slightly, which prevents fruit floating. Then pour quickly and cover hot jam at once with hot paraffin wax.
Certo is the natural jelling substance which has been extracted from fruit, refined and bottled so that perfect jams and jellies can be made without long boiling.
Recommended by a famous expert in cookery
Miss Alice Bradley, Principal, Miss Farmer's School of Cookery and Cooking Editor, Woman's Home Companion, says—
"I strongly advise all housewives to make all their jams and jellies with Certo because it's easier—Takes only one minute's boiling. Tastes better—No flavor boiled away. Better color—Not darkened by long boiling. No worry—Never fails to set. It's economical—Fifty per cent more from given amount of fruit and no waste from failures."
Get Certo today from your grocer. With each bottle comes a complete book of recipes for making better looking, better flavored jams and jellies the quick, easy Certo way.

Georgia Pharmacist

State Reg. No. 2616

Philip D. Gaines, R.P.
RHEU-GO EXPERT

Says:—

I am a Registered Pharmacist in two states and while attending a school of pharmacy I became interested in the treatment of rheumatism and its kindred ailments.

After careful study and realizing the proper drugs to use for speedy relief — and if possible, a cure—for these diseases, also realizing that these drugs oft-times destroyed or nauseated the stomach—I began my study to overcome these difficulties.

As the years went by and by the aid and untiring help of a brother Pharmacist and by careful study of these well-known drugs and their action on the system, for the relief and treatment of pain and swollen joints, I finally reached the goal I had sought and perfected this well-known treatment of today.

I began to counter-prescribe this treatment and with the quick results I had with approximately a thousand cases, I decided to tell the world about it, that all sufferers might benefit by its use.

I have appeared personally in three states, namely: Indiana, W. Virginia and Ohio, and today this treatment is rapidly becoming known throughout the U. S. A. and some foreign countries.

Sincerely,
P. D. GAINES

P. S.—I wish to further say, that I have been a rheumatic sufferer for fifteen years, suffering the most painful form, known as Sciatica. I have had various treatments, including the mineral baths, electrical and medical attention in various sanitariums. I WILL EXPLAIN FULLY HOW I WAS CURED — AT MATHEWS CUT RATE.

MATHEWS CUT RATE

15 Broadway as Headquarters

—He personally wishes to consult with all sufferers of the above diseases, as he will gladly and freely relate his experiences with thousands and thousands of rheumatic sufferers throughout the country. (We wish to assure out of town people that they will be taken care of, as an assistant will be called if necessary.)

Questions I will answer at MATHEWS CUT RATE:—

1—Why are women easier victims to Rheumatic diseases than men?

2—Why do thousands of people think that rheumatism can't be cured?

3—What is the cause of RHEUMATISM? ASK THIS QUESTION BY ALL MEANS!

4—Why is the farmer more liable to have Rheumatism than the man that lives in the city?

5—Is there a cure for RHEUMATISM and similar diseases?

6—How many known cures are there?

7—Why are 90% of factory working people sufferers from some form of rheumatism?

8—Why do we wait until we are dangerously ILL before calling a DOCTOR? This is an important question.

FACTS

We do not like to look on the dark side of life — yet some times it is necessary — because we must realize as sensible people, the suffering, pain — months, and sometimes years, of torture, crippled bodies, drawn fingers, useless arms and legs, impaired sight, and so forth, that lays in wait for the diseased rheumatic sufferer.

RHEUMATISM IS A DANGEROUS, PECULIAR DISEASE OF THE BLOOD. It attacks each one differently. In some so-called MILD cases, the patient has been known to become helpless in the course of a few months — a burden to his family for the rest of his life — never regaining the strong body and mind that he once possessed.

Others have been known to suffer the tortures of HELL for years and with the proper treatment, they should have been restored to normal health within a few weeks.

Rheumatism and its kindred ailments have no respected persons, it attacks all ages and all classes, usually unexpectedly. Yet it seems that no words are deep enough to express, and no voice loud enough to sound a warning!

JUNE AND JULY

The most logical time of the year to treat the above diseases.

WHY?

Because this is the time of the year we enjoy and realize the benefits of sunshine and fresh air. Nothing could be more helpful, while driving the poisons and impurities out of the system, as the pores of the skin readily open and respond to nature.

Walking is a pleasure and exercise is very necessary, as the use of weak muscles and defective nerves are restored to normal action.

Elimination of the waste material of the bowels are more effective because of the change in diet.

Many things must be taken in consideration in successful treatment of the above diseases.

APPEAL

We appeal to people of all ages, young or old, rich or poor, to come to Mathews and talk to the man who originated and perfected this wonderful treatment.

He has helped thousands and maybe he can be of service to you or your family or some friend that is discouraged and thinks life not worth while. Come to Mathews Cut Rate and learn of this treatment. It may be worth your while.

To grandmother and grandfather who have given up hope, we appeal—to young girls and young boys who have had only a few slight attacks (blood disorders, etc.) and thinks he or she can outgrow these deadly diseases WE MOST SINCERELY APPEAL.

Heed the warning! It costs you nothing and may save you a life of misery and discomfort.

MR. MATHEWS

Salem, Youngstown and East Liverpool.

Mr. Mathews says:—

"By owning and operating three well-known stores, we are proud of the fact that we have been able to induce Mr. Gaines, originator and specialist, to appear personally and converse with the rheumatic sufferers of Salem and vicinity.

We sincerely hope that every man and woman will take advantage of this opportunity. We have investigated thoroughly the record of Mr. Gaines and his wonderful treatment and freely recommend his services to you.

Sincerely,

S. L. Mathews

Owner of the Mathews Cut Rate Chain stores.

"To the Sufferers of Blood Diseases This is a Golden Opportunity"

N. B. — "By all means, if you suffer from acid conditions or impure blood, boils, pimples, loss of appetite, or a general run down condition, see Mr. Gaines as these are basic causes of rheumatism and similar diseases inclusive of nervousness, etc.

TWO GRADUATE AT WESLEYAN

Miss Cornwall and Lee Weingart In Class At Delaware

Delaware, June 7.—Miss Mary Helen Cornwall, 475 Cleveland ave., and Lee C. Weingart, R. R. 6, Salem, are included among the candidates for degrees at the 84th annual commencement of Ohio Wesleyan university here Tuesday, June 12.

The 376 members of the senior class will begin a brilliant round of graduation festivities Saturday which will last until they don their caps and gowns to receive their diplomas Tuesday morning. Presentation of "Much Ado About Nothing" by the university histrionic club will open the program Saturday evening.

Bishop Francis J. McConnell of the Methodist Episcopal church, himself a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning. A sacred concert by the Ohio Wesleyan Singers club and the university orchestra will be the other feature of the day.

Alumni Day and the senior class day exercises and luncheon will all be held Monday, June 11. The biggest event of the day will be the annual alumni luncheon at which gifts made to the university during the year are to be announced and other important announcements made. Reunions of 15 classes early Monday evening will be followed by the usual promenade concert on the gay, lantern-lit campus.

"The Art of Living" will be the subject of the commencement address to be delivered Tuesday morning by President A. A. Shaw of Denison university.

Miss Mabel I. Brungard, North Lima, is also included in the graduation class.

retained for the coming year except one to take the place of L. C. Rinear, teacher of agriculture. They are: Principal C. G. Long, teacher of science; Miss Grace Richards, teacher of mathematics and French; Miss Pauline Cope, teacher of Latin and English; and O. E. Ferner teaches history in the high school and teaches the eighth grade. Miss Letha Brunk of Columbiana has been secured to take the seventh grade in the place of Miss Hibler who resigned. No one has been secured so far to take the agriculture and manual training. This teacher will be hired by the board this year, instead of being a Smith Hughes agricultural teacher as formerly. Miss Mary French will teach fourth, fifth and sixth grades, and Miss Ethel Ladd will have charge of the first, second and third grades. Miss Estell Lapp of Alliance, will teach music in Goshen, Smith, Garfield and Belmont, giving two days to Goshen township.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Shook of East Palestine, was in town on business Monday.

Tells Skinny Men how to Gain Weight

If the flat chested man whose ribs are almost bursting thru his skin doesn't try to make himself look like a real man, no one else will.

When any man or woman needs more weight they ought to know about McCoy's Tablets.

McCoy takes all the risk—Read this ironclad guarantee. If after taking 4 sixty cent boxes of McCoy's Tablets or 2 One Dollar boxes any thin, underweight man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds and feel completely satisfied with the marked improvement in health—your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price.

The name McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets has been shortened—just ask for McCoy's Tablets at any drug store in America. Adv.

DAMASCUS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Izenour, who were recently married were given a shower Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crew by relatives and friends from Garfield, Marlboro, Westville, Alliance and Damascus. They received many beautiful and useful gifts. Mrs. Crew served a nice lunch.

Paul Somerville was surprised Tuesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Somerville, near Garfield, the occasion being his birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Messenheimer and family and Mr. and Mrs. David Somerville of Alliance; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Painter of Sebring; Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Somerville and Miss Dolly Somerville of Garfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McDonald and family of Damascus. A social time was enjoyed and a fine lunch served.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McDonald and family have moved into part of Mrs. Armand Reber's house.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cosand and family left Wednesday for Carmel, Ind., where they will visit for a week.

But that's not the only reason why we recommend Devoe Lacquer—

Most lacquer dries in 30 minutes—but none does what Devoe does! For Devoe is so easy to put on you just won't want to stop painting! It gives you a smoother, lovelier surface than has ever been possible before—a finish as wear-resisting as varnish itself.

What's more, it comes in 22 of the most beautiful colors ever used in lacquer. Come in and get a free color card.
